1. We often sentimentalize Christmas and forget that God entered into a time in world history as broken as today’s world. The Christmas season often papers over the darkness of the world. Consider:
 - a. The evil we see in the news every day
 - b. The deep darkness in our own hearts
 - c. The way we tell the story of Christmas
2. What are some ways you or your family can “sit in silence” and meditate on the promise of new birth at Christmas?
 - a. Is there a way to unplug from screens for a few days?
 - b. Has your family created spaces for rest and meditation among your holiday plans?
 - c. How are you centering your family life around worship and expectation during December?
